

Community Aid
50/50 RAFFLE
OFFICIAL RULES

1. Community Aid will conduct a 50/50 Raffle (the "Raffle") at Clipper Magazine Stadium on such of the dates on which home games (regular season and post-season) of the Lancaster Barnstormers are scheduled to be played as it may elect.
2. On each of those dates, Raffle tickets will be sold throughout Clipper Magazine Stadium from the time its gates are opened to the public through the end of the 7th inning of that date's game or the time at which a decision is announced that the game or its completion has been postponed to a later date or cancelled. Such sales shall be for cash, as follows: (a) three tickets for five dollars; (b) ten tickets for ten dollars; and (c) Forty tickets for twenty dollars. Every Raffle ticket sale will be final and each ticket purchased will represent one entry in the drawing for the winner of the Raffle.
3. Following the conclusion of the 7th inning (or the announcement of any postponement or cancellation of the game), a single winning Raffle ticket will be randomly drawn utilizing an automated computer program. The winning ticketholder need not be present at the time of the drawing in order to win. The winning Raffle ticket will be announced during the 8th inning (or within fifteen minutes following any such postponement or cancellation announcement), by posting its number on the ballpark's electronic side boards from time to time and by thereafter being posted for at least the next thirty days on the Barnstormers baseball website (www.lancasterbarnstormers.com).
4. Each Raffle, and all tickets, transactions, participants, purchasers, winners and other aspects of the Raffle whatsoever, are subject to these Official Rules, to the Pennsylvania Local Option Small Games of Chance Act and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto (together, "the Act"), and to any and all other statutes and regulations that may be applicable thereto.
5. Half of the amount of the gross proceeds from the sale of tickets to each Raffle (as determined by Community Aid in its sole discretion) shall constitute the Raffle's prize (the "Prize"). The other half shall be retained by Community Aid in accordance with the Act. Prize winners will be subject to all withholding tax and other federal, state and local tax requirements.
6. To prove entitlement to any Prize, the holder of the winning Raffle ticket must do the following, in person, either at Guest Services located on the boardwalk next to the front gate, before the end of the 9th inning or, thereafter, by appointment at the offices of Community Aid at Clipper Magazine Stadium on or before midnight of the day which is fifteen days following the later of the last day of The Lancaster Barnstormers regular season or of its last post-season game: (a) produce the winning Raffle ticket; (b) complete and sign the appropriate Prize Claim Form; and (c) complete and sign all applicable tax forms. Once those steps have been timely completed to its reasonable satisfaction, Community Aid will within thirty days thereafter mail its check, in the amount of the Prize net of any applicable tax withholding, to the person and at the address specified in the Prize Claim Form. Any Prize that is not properly and timely so claimed and any Prize check so mailed that is returned undeliverable, shall be deemed forfeited and the Prize amount shall instead be retained by Community Aid in accordance with the Act.
7. Raffle tickets may not be purchased and Prizes may not be claimed by any person who is: (a) not at least 18 years old; (b) visibly intoxicated; or (c) selling tickets for or otherwise engaged in the operation of that Raffle or is a director and/or officer of Community Aid, or a member of the immediate family of any such person. A Raffle ticket is void and its holder is ineligible to win the Prize if there is sufficient evidence, in the sole discretion of Community Aid, that the ticket was improperly issued, printed in duplicate or in error, counterfeited, stolen, illegible, altered or subject to other similar or dissimilar material deficiencies and Community Aid will have no liability with respect to or the redemption in error of such a ticket. Unauthorized persons copying, selling or altering Raffle tickets or otherwise undermining the legitimate operation of a Raffle are subject to prosecution.
8. By purchasing a Raffle ticket, each ticketholder agrees to have his or her name, biographical information, photograph, image and likeness, and voice published, broadcast and otherwise reproduced by Community Aid and/or The Lancaster Barnstormers in any media or format, worldwide, for publicity and promotional purposes, without notice, review or approval and without further payment or consideration, for an unlimited duration.
